

Society's Activities in Advance of the Holidays.

First Fete for Big Sisters to Be Held To-morrow Night

Three Others to Follow on Successive Mondays—
Events Arranged by Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt
2d and a Committee of the Organization.

FURTHER to intensify the social life of the present and to add to the gaiety of the holiday period, the first of the series of four dances and fetes in Sherry's for the Big Sisters is to come with to-morrow night. Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d has arranged these soirees, with the cooperation of a large committee of the three branches of the Big Sisters organizations, the Catholic, the Protestant and Jewish, which will share equally in the income. The other fetes, on successive Monday nights, are to come with December 26 and January 2 and 9.

While intended to form after theater attractions, the festivities have been arranged to start at 10 o'clock for the immediate interest of after dinner parties. At 11:30 the special programmes arranged for each of the parties are to be started.

To-morrow night Maurice and Leonora Hughes will give several of their newest dances. By the time they will have finished several of Florenz Ziegfeld's entertainers, including Will Rogers and his pungent sense of humor, will have arrived for the second part of the programme. After an interval for supper there is to be dancing.

Among those who have reserved tables for to-morrow night are Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mr. Martin Vogel, Mr. Hermann Oelrichs, Mrs. Edward F. H. M., Mr. James W. Gerard, Mr. Marshall H. Russell, Mr. Lawrence Waterbury and Mr. J. Leonard Replogle, each of whom will have ten or more guests.

Reservations for tables or tickets may be obtained at Sherry's or at the headquarters of the Big Sisters at 681 Fifth avenue, where the telephone number is Plaza 3552. The details of the special programmes for the remaining fetes will be made known well in advance of each event.

The patronesses associated with Mrs. Vanderbilt are Meses. Richard T. Wilson, Payne Whitney, Winthrop W. Aldrich, Vincent Astor, Robert Low Bacon, George F. Baker, Jr., James A. Burden, James W. Gerard, Peter G. Gerry, Robert L. Gerry, Frank Gray Griswold, Ogden H. Hammond, Edward M. House, Franklin C. Hoyt, Otto H. Kahn, G. Hermann Kinnear, William Goodby Loew, John W. Mackay, Francis K. Sale and Dance to Aid St. Christopher's Guild

Even at this early date plans are being formed by junior members of St. Christopher's Guild of St. Mary's Free Hospital for children to celebrate their tenth anniversary. They intend to hold a sale, tea and dance on the afternoon of April 22 at 1621 Park avenue, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Stettinius, and the various committees for it are being organized. It is hoped that one of the mentioned there will be no conflicting entertainment.

The league has 114 members and the chairman for this season is Miss Amy Bowring, Miss Helen Brown being the secretary. All members are doing active work at the hospital.

Lecture for Charity At Mrs. Astor's Home

Mrs. Vincent Astor will again place her house at the disposal of women interested in charity and to-morrow afternoon there will be given in the picture gallery of her home at 840 Fifth avenue a lecture by Major Vivian Gilbert of the British Army for the benefit of the Orthopedic Ward of the Post Graduate Hospital.

Major Gilbert, who served throughout the recent world war, has prepared a lecture filled with interest which he calls "The Last Crusade" and it is a stirring account of Gen. Allenby's capture of Jerusalem.

The lecture is being given under the auspices of the ladies' auxiliary committee of the hospital ward whose officers are: Mrs. Edward McVickar, president; Mrs. Shephard K. DeForest, vice-president; Mrs. Malcolm Smith, secretary; and Mrs. Arthur Coppel, treasurer.

Among members of the committee for the hospital are Baroness de Villers, de Terrance, Meses. Robert McCurdy Marsh, George F. Baker, Jr., Albert H. Elv, Frederick M. To Fill Christmas Stockings for Veterans

Three hundred Christmas stockings for disabled veterans in the Manhattan State Hospital at Ward's Island are being filled by volunteer workers of the New York Chapter of the Red Cross under the direction of Mrs. MacLane Van In-en. Among the volunteers are Mrs. Prescott Slade, Mrs. Henry Martyn Alexander, Miss Virginia Van In-en, Miss Anne Van Ingen and Mrs. John S. Ellsworth.

The Red Cross Club, at Lexington avenue and Thirty-ninth street, will keep open house for disabled ex-service men, seamen and soldiers who are in the city during the Christmas holidays. Members of the Red Cross canteen and Overseas Service League will serve Christmas dinner and other meals during the week. They include Miss Eulalie Van Lennep, Miss Ethel Spears, Miss Emilie Potts, Miss Belle Andrews, Miss Mae McAdoo, Mrs. Langdon Geer, Miss Louise Van Ingen, Miss Julia Abbe, Miss Gertrude Freeman, Mrs. Montague Flag, Mrs. William C. Dickey, Mrs. E. C. Zabriskie and Miss Annie S. Willis.

Twelfth Night Fete For Kindergarten

Twelfth Night, or "Little Christmas," will be celebrated as usual by the Sunday Kindergarten Association. Mr. Roland Hinton Perry, the sculptor and painter, has loaned his studio at 51 West Tenth street for the occasion.

Welfare Work of Theatre Assembly

The children in the Day Nurseries in Bradford street, East New York, and in Herkimer street, Brooklyn, also those in the Day Nursery in Syracuse, N. Y., will be presented on Christmas with dolls and toys, the gifts of the Junior Art Society and the Theatre Assembly. Mrs. J. Christopher Marks, president.

Christmas Concert For Mount Holyoke

A Christmas concert will be given on Tuesday evening at Aeolian Hall under the auspices of the New York Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College. Frances Holmes Abbott, president. One hundred members of the college choir will take part in the programme, and the proceeds will be given to the Mount Holyoke $2,000,000 endowment fund.

Engagements and Weddings of the Winter in Society

Miss Louise G. Witherbee to Be Married Early in the New Year.

Engagements and Weddings of the Winter in Society

ALTHOUGH the exact date has not been set for the marriage of Miss Louise G. Witherbee and Lieut.-Commander A. Stanton Merrill, U. S. N., whose engagement was announced last week, will take place the latter part of January.

Miss Witherbee is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Witherbee of New York and Ledgeport, Port Henry, N. Y. She is a member of the Junior League and has many relatives in this city. The late Frank Spencer Witherbee was her cousin and Mr. Witherbee Black of this city and Southampton is also a cousin. She is a sister of Miss Annie C. Witherbee and of Mr. Silas H. Witherbee, who married Miss Alice Gouverneur Kortright of New York.

During the war Miss Witherbee was a member of the Overseas League and served as an aid in the Red Cross.

Lieut.-Commander Merrill is a son of Mrs. Merrill (nee Stanton) of Natchez, Miss., and was graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1912. During the war he commanded a destroyer and is at present aid to Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, American High Commissioner at Constantinople.

No date has been set for the marriage of Miss Katharine Adams to Mr. Sydney Clement McCall, but it probably will take place next spring, soon after her arrival from Europe, where she is at present with her family. Miss Adams is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aven Franklin Adams of 375 Park avenue, and is a graduate of Miss Spencer's School. She made her debut several years ago, and during the war served for two years at the French Hospital at La Panne, Belgium.

Mr. McCall is a son of Mrs. John A. McCall of 112 East Seventy-fourth street and the late Mr. McCall, who was president of the New York Life Insurance Company. He was graduated from Yale in 1904, and is a member of the University and Yale clubs of New York and the Graduate Club of New Haven. He was a member of the First Armored Motor Battery during the war, and served for twenty-two months with the Yale unit in the A. E. F.

The engagement of Miss Adams and Mr. McCall was announced last week by her parents.

Cable messages from Spain last week brought the news of the engagement of Miss Virginia Randolph Harrison, elder daughter of Mr. Francis Burton Harrison, to Mr. Christian Groves, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Groves of Chicago. The marriage will take place shortly after the new year in Algeiras, Spain. The engagement follows a romance of the Philippines when Mr. Harrison was Governor there and Mr. Groves was serving in the army with the rank of captain.

Mr. Groves, who is a graduate of the University of Illinois, in 1917 headed a unit of graduates from that college in forming American Field Service No. 61 for overseas duty. In September, 1917, he was cited for bravery when he attempted to rescue under fire his classmate, Paul Bentley, son of Mr. Fred Bentley, and the first Chicago boy killed in the war. He received six medals for bravery during the war. He is now a Franco-American scholarship student in the University of Grenoble, France.

Miss Harrison is a daughter of Mr. Harrison by his first wife, who was Miss Mary Crocker, daughter of the late Charles Crocker of San Francisco. She was killed in an automobile accident. The marriage of Miss Harrison's parents took place more than twenty years ago in Tuxedo Park. The reception was held at the villa of Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, an aunt of the late Mrs. Harrison. Miss Harrison went abroad some time ago.

Mistletoe Ball for Benefit of Dug Out

A mistletoe ball for the benefit of the Dug Out at 150 East Sixty-first street and for disabled soldiers will be given by the Fall Mall Supper Club in the grill room of the Hotel Lorraine on Christmas eve. Mrs. Edward McVickar, chairman of the executive committee of the Dug Out, and Major Lorillard Spencer, its secretary, will distribute the proceeds on Christmas Day.

The ball committee includes, in addition to Mrs. McVickar and Major Spencer, Mrs. Charles de Rham, Jr., Mrs. Roland Hinton Perry and Mr. Stephen H. P. Pell.

New Film for Lafayette Guild

THERE has been an encouraging sale of seats for the entertainment in aid of the Lafayette Guild of the Fowler Hospital, which will be held to-night in the Sam H. Harris Theatre, in West Forty-second street. There will be shown at 8 o'clock a new film entitled "The Fourteenth Lover," with Miss Viola Dana, and a Buster Keaton comedy film.

Seats in the orchestra at $2 each and in the balcony at $1.50 each may be obtained at the box office of the theatre. The Lafayette Guild is the outcome of war work of a group of women who raised funds and established a convalescent home for soldiers known as Lafayette House. The war row over, there was no immediate need of such a home, but the organizers decided to establish the guild to look after the sick of Fowler Hospital and also to keep the name.

Debutantes to Reign at Round of Holiday Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Herman D. Kountze to Introduce Their Daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kountze, at Dinner Followed by Theater Party.

THE holiday season that starts in this week will be marked by unusual activity and there will be a concentration of entertainments for the debutantes.

There will be an influx not only of men from universities and preparatory schools but of girls as well who are in the various colleges, some of them participating in such entertainments only during the holidays. Last season some of the college girls came to New York for the parties given at the end of each week, but there has been a change this season, as such indulgences do not seem to be in keeping with the curriculum of school or college.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson varied the custom generally adhered to in regard to introducing a debutante and they held a reception last Sunday to present their daughter, Miss Louise Steedman Wilson, in their new apartment at Sherry's. There were in evidence many other debutantes of the season. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will hold another reception this afternoon for their daughter, when other friends of the family will be present.

To-morrow's festivities will begin with a luncheon which Mrs. Norman H. Davis will give at 59 East Seventy-ninth street for her daughter, Miss Martha Davis, who is a student at Vassar. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have been living in Washington, D. C., for several years. Mrs. Davis is holding a reception for her daughter on the afternoon of December 27.

Dinners and a theater party followed by a dance will mark to-morrow night. Mr. and Mrs. Herman D. Kountze will give a dinner in the crystal room of the Plaza-Carlton for the formal introduction of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kountze, and their guests, numbering more than a hundred, will be obliged to assemble early in order to get to the Music Box in time for the regular performance. After the play Mr. and Mrs. Kountze will take the members of their party to the dance which Mr. and Mrs.

Drive for Vassar Fund To Be Continued

The metropolitan committee of the Vassar College Salary Endowment Fund has decided to continue the present intensive campaign in New York until the metropolitan district had reached its quota of $200,000 toward the national $3,000,000 fund. Approximately $50,000 of this has been subscribed by alumnae, one-time students and friends of Vassar. The metropolitan district comprises Manhattan, Bronx and Staten Island, of which Mrs. William Ladd, Vassar, '08, is chairman; Brooklyn, headed by Miss Helen Babcock, '13; Long Island, headed by Mrs. Harry L. Wavle, '01; Westchester and Rockland counties, headed by Mrs. William B. Hill, Jr., '19; and northern New Jersey, headed by Mrs. John T. Gillespie.

17 Pianists to Play at the Same Time in Concert

Event to Be Held in Aid of Moritz Moszkowski, Composer.

UNIQUE among incidents that unite society and the concert stage is to be the concert in Carnegie Hall Wednesday night for the fund that is being raised to help Moritz Moszkowski, the composer, who lives in Paris, through his present financial distress. The composer, who also is in failing health, is in his sixty-seventh year.

The concert, at which seventeen pianists of note have promised to appear singly and, perhaps, collectively, forms part of the work of the Moszkowski testimonial committee, whose headquarters are at 80 West Forty-third street. Mrs. Ernest Schelling, whose husband will be one of the seventeen pianists who will contribute to the program, is treasurer of the committee, and with her are associated as directors of the benefit Mrs. Charles E.
